

Morphology

An Introduction to Linguistics

Prerequisite: None

Credit Hours: (2)

This course helps the students to get familiar with word formation processes and theories of morphology (definitions and theories related to words, word types, and word formations). It also provides the students with the knowledge of examining the construct of words.