

Applied Linguistics

Prerequisite: 31300,31301

Credit Hours: (2)

This course is concerned with the description and explanation of practical problems relating to language and communication in society. It also provides an introduction to basic concepts in linguistics and their application in meeting practical educational goals. It includes an emphasis on first and foreign language learning.