

English for Specific Purposes

Prerequisite: None

Credit Hours: (2)

The course is designed to help the learners get familiar with the theories and methods of ESP teaching/learning. Its other objectives also include: 1.To develop an understanding about the factors that led to the emergence of ESP and the forces, both theoretical and applied, that have shaped its subsequent development. 2. To provide guidelines to adapt or evaluate existing authentic ESP materials in a chosen professional or occupational area.
